

O’Neill Institute

for National and Global Health Law

Georgetown Law • Georgetown Nursing & Health Studies

Panel Presentation with Professor Allyn Taylor

American Public Health Association: 139th Annual Meeting & Exposition

---

Panel #3312.1 –

International Migration of Health Workers: An Urgent International Public Health Issue

Time: 2:30-4:00 pm

Location: Convention Center – Salon B

Moderator: Karen Gladbach, MA, WHO/PAHO

---

Overview of international migration of health workers: specifics for the Region of the Americas

Silvina Malvárez, PhD, PAHO/WHO, Washington, DC

International recruitment of health workers: the view from a ‘sending’ country

Handle with care: the fragile state of nursing in the Caribbean

Christoph Kurowski, MD, MSc, World Bank/Mexico

WHO’s Global Code of Practice on the International Recruitment of Health Personnel: concepts and implementation strategy

Allyn L. Taylor, JD, JSD, Georgetown University Law School, Washington, DC

A “destination” country’s response: U.S. implementation of the Code of Practice

Edward S. Salsberg, MPH, HHS/HRSA, Rockville, MD