

Global Health Law LL.M. Presents:
“Careers in Global Health Law- A Panel Discussion”

Wednesday, March 30, 2011 · 6:00 – 7:30 PM
Georgetown University Law Center
McDonough Hall, Room 220
600 New Jersey Ave., NW Washington, DC 20001

Guillermo J. Aviles-Mendoza

LCDR, U.S. Public Health Service, Division of International Health Security
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

Patricia Lambert

Director, International Legal Consortium, Campaign for Tobacco Free Kids

Juliana Maia

Partner, International Healthcare Solutions Group

Roy Mann

Vice President, CB Richard Ellis

John Monahan

Special Advisor for Global Health Partnerships at the U.S. Department of State,
Office of the Global AIDS Coordinator

Susan Pascocello

Assistant General Counsel, USAID

Sheila D. Walcoff

Founding Principal, Goldbug Strategies, LLC

Introduction by Tanya Baytor

Global Health Law LL.M. Program Director
Georgetown University Law Center

Please join us for an interactive panel discussion on “Careers in Global Health Law.” Our panelists will share their perspectives on pursuing a career in global health law. Refreshments will be served.