

Family Building with Donor Gametes:
New Families, New Issues and International Perspectives

Wednesday, April 17, 2013
3:45 – 5:15 PM
Reception to follow until 6:00pm

Georgetown University Law Center
McDonough Hall, Room 140
600 New Jersey Avenue, NW · Washington, DC 20001

Moderated by Susan Crockin, JD, Adjunct Professor, O'Neill Institute for National and Global Health Law, Georgetown Law

Sonia Allan, Ph.D.

Senior Lecturer in Law, Deakin University, Australia; former O'Neill Institute Global Health Law LL.M Fellow; Churchill Fellow:
"Anonymity vs. Openness - International Approaches to Non-Anonymous Donation and Information Release"

Sonia Suter, MS, J.D.

Professor of Law, George Washington University:
"What Makes a Parent? An Overview of U.S. Law on Resolving Parentage Issues Involving Gamete Donation and Surrogacy"

Andrea Braverman, Ph.D.

Assistant Director, Educational Core, Department of OB/Gyn, Jefferson University, Philadelphia, PA:
"The "New" Family: The Psychosocial Perspectives"

Stephen H. Pool, Ph.D.

Director, Fairfax Cryobank:
"Anonymous vs. Identity Option Donation in the U.S.: A Sperm Bank Perspective"