

O'Neill Institute

for National and Global Health Law

Georgetown Law • Georgetown Nursing & Health Studies

“Law, reproduction, and disability – fatally ‘handicapped’?”

Tuesday, April 17, 2012 · 3:30 PM – 4:30 PM
Georgetown University Law Center
E.B. Williams Library, Room 358
600 New Jersey Ave., NW | Washington, DC 20001

Introduction by: Benn McGrady, Project Director, O'Neill Institute

Sheelagh McGuinness

University Fellow

Birmingham Law School

Biography

Dr. Sheelagh McGuinness is a University Fellow based in the Centre for Health Law, Science & Policy, at Birmingham Law School. Her research interests span law and bioethics (particularly reproduction, medical migration, and disability) focusing on the interplay between law, ethics, and policy. She is a member of the Independent Ethics and Governance Council of UK Biobank and also sits on the Royal College of General Practitioners' Medical Ethics Committee. Before joining Birmingham as a University Fellow Sheelagh was a lecturer in the Centre for Professional Ethics and the School of Law at Keele University.